C	Greater Bank product name	Credit Card For product description see Credit Cards
D	Product features	Key features <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A Visa Credit Card facility for personal use. • Interest is only charged on actual daily balance. • Repayments are accepted at any time and made available to be drawn again. Monthly minimum repayments are set at 3% of previous month's closing balance. • Purchases can attract up to 55 days interest free, but Balance transfers and Cash Advances attract interest from date of transaction. • Interest rate is consistent across all balance types (Purchases, Balance Transfers and Cash Advances). • No transaction fees except for Cash Advance and Foreign currency conversion fees. Service charges may apply. • Annual facility fee of $49 applies unless credit card is held as a component of a Housing loan Package. • Accepted where ever Visa is accepted worldwide.
E	Key Attributes and other features	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Credit Card facilities attract a variable rate of interest. • Credit Card facilities may carry a credit balance but will not attract any credit interest. • Intended for customers wishing to finance purchases and repay the debt over longer than a single month. Thus the interest rate is competitively low, but other benefits such as 'Rewards' or 'points' are not attached to this product. • The 'up-to 55-day interest free' period also facilitates transactions where the debt will be repaid within a month making this a card with a broad appeal base.
F	Knowledge and experience	Basic – mass marketed product of low complexity/ risk profile.

1	Description of the retail class that comprises the target market (s 994B(5)(b) of the Corporations Act)	Customers seeking a facility to finance a personal need without committing to a scheduled repayment structure. Customers seeking freedom to draw funds from the approved limit at their discretion without approval of each drawing by Greater Bank. Customers wishing to finance a purchase and pay it off over a period longer than a single month. This card has a low interest rate and low fee structure without Rewards or points which represent an additional cost to the card issuer which must be borne by the card holders either directly or indirectly. Customers who: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • are willing to accept the risk that their interest rate may go up or down over the life of the facility generally in line with interest rate fluctuations in the market. • may require flexibility, such as unlimited early repayments and paying out the loan without incurring additional costs and/or progressive drawdown. • may require the convenience of card access to pay for items immediately at point of sale. • may require ability to draw cash to spend at their discretion.
2	Negative target market	The Greater Bank Credit Card is not suitable for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Customers who are seeking a reverse mortgage to release equity from their residential property. • Potential borrowers looking to fund business operations. • Potential borrowers seeking the lowest cost of financing a significant purchase such as a residential property where the premium applicable in rate is not offset by the flexibility of drawing the funds at customers discretion and the lack of a set repayment structure. • It is also not the ideal product for customers seeking to accrue points or rewards other providers cards may offer with significantly different pricing structures.
3	Description of distribution conditions and restrictions (s 994B(5)(c) of the Corporations Act)	Distribution Conditions in relation to permitted channels Credit Cards can only be issued through the following channels: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Branches and Centres operated by Greater Bank • Mobile Lenders • Online Distribution Conditions in relation to staff who are 'regulated persons' Credit Cards can only be issued by accredited Greater Bank Lenders who:
